ROAD NAMED AFTER DAGENHAM SOLDIER

By Peter Henn

A SOLDIER who gave his life in Afghanistan has been honoured by having a road named after him.

Private Tony Rawson, from Dagenham, was killed on Friday, August 10, 2007, when his patrol in Helmand province was shot at as it made its way to inspect an irrigation project.

He was 27 years old.

Now his sacrifice has been honoured after Barking & Dagenham Council named a street, Tony Rawson Way, after him - the first in London to be named after a fallen soldier of the Afghanistan war.

The road, in Dagenham, was unveiled by his family on Wednesday.

His mother, Ann Williams, said the naming was a fitting tribute to her son.

She told the YA: "Tony was someone who was liked, loved and respected. I know he would have absolutely loved this, and he would have been very, very proud."

Private Rawson, a former pupil at the Robert Clack School, Gosfield Road, Dagenham, joined the army in 2002 and signed up for the 1st Battalion Royal Anglian Regiment the following year.

He served in Iraq and was a keen boxer, representing his company in the army's inter-company boxing championships, which he won - despite his diminutive stature.

Mrs Williams, 51, explained: "He had to take on someone who was a lot bigger than him, but he beat him. He was so quick."

His comrade and friend, Private Matt Woollard, said Private Rawson was a 'lovely, helpful, genuine' person, which earned him the nickname 'Nicey'.

He explained: "I came into the army in 2005, and Tony just took me under his wing."

"When I was injured, he came to see me in hospital and we talked. He was such a lovely bloke."

"To have a nickname like 'Nicey', you have to earn it, and he did."

New trade scheme

A TRADERS' scheme has been launched for businesses across Barking and Dagenham.

'Buy With Confidence' is a way for members of the public to avoid cowboys and pick out genuine companies who have signed up to the scheme, which is audited by Trading Standards.

For more information, call 020 8215 3007, e-mail 3000direct@lbbd.gov.uk or visit www.buywithconfidence.gov.uk

Computer courses

A FREE computer training course in Barking will run for the next 19 years, according to a council website.

Advice on surfing the net, setting up and using an e-mail account and basic Word and Excel training will be given at the Town Square site until 2030.

Barking and Dagenham Council has set up the hour-long session from 7.30pm.

Hall gets makeover

A DAGENHAM community hall will get a four-month makeover from 40 young offenders.

Barking and Dagenham Council's Youth Offending Service will take to Fanshawe Community Hall, in Barnmead Road, to give it a makeover.

Scores of offenders aged under 18 will paint, maintain and carry out basic repairs to the hall each week as part of their reparation orders.

Competition

WIN! Tickets to

AN EVENING OF BURLESQUE

THE promoters of An Evening of Burlesque, which will take to the stage of the Cliffs Pavilion next week, have teamed up with Yellow Advertiser to give away five pairs of tickets.

Hollywood new release Burlesque, starring Christine Aguilera and Cher, is a current box office hit as the fascinating art form once again captures the world's imagination.

Now you can enjoy burlesque live at the Cliffs Pavilion, when it comes direct from London's West End on Friday, February 11.

The show, which promises to be tantalising yet tasteful, camp and colourful, recreates the tradition of Burlesque, with a modern-day twist, and includes special guests The Folly Mixtures.

To buy tickets for the show, contact the box office on 01702 251135 or visit www.thecliffspavilion.co.uk

For your chance to win one of five pairs of tickets, answer the following:

Q: At which theatre will the show be staged next week?

A: Cliffs Pavilion

B: Palace Theatre

C: Queen's Theatre

To enter the competition, e-mail your answer, along with your name, address and telephone number to Liz Wade at features@yellowad.co.uk

T&Cs: The first five people to e-mail the correct answer, along with their full contact details, will win the pairs of tickets. There is no cash alternative. Usual Yellow Advertiser rules apply. The Editor's decision is final.

A CHARITY is calling on people to give up £1 a month to help those stricken by cancer.

Mark McCarthy's Magic Moments, which looks after patients under the care of Barking, Havering & Redbridge NHS Hospitals Trust, is launching the fundraising drive to commemorate its first year as an independent organisation.

The charity's chairman, Donna Hurley, said she wanted to reach out to people across the three boroughs.

She told the YA: "If we can get 1,000 people to give what's more or less a bag of crisps a month, it'll be really good."

The group was originally set up as a fundraising branch of BHR Hospitals, and was founded in 1998 by the parents of Mark McCarthy - a 27-year-old from Ilford who died of leukaemia.

Mark, who worked in his hometown's branch of Marks & Spencer before his death, found he became increasingly isolated as his sickness got worse, and after he passed away, his mother and father set up the organisation to help those in a similar situation.

Last year, it became registered as a charity.

Donna said the idea was to prevent isolation.

The 45-year-old mother-of-twins explained: "Cancer patients end up feeling isolated, as do their carers, so we take them out and let them meet other people in the same situation. It really does make a difference."

If you want to help, go to www.markmccarthymagicmoments.webs.com or write to Mark McCarthy's Magic Moments, 127 Ibscott Close, Dagenham, Essex, RM10 9YU.

RAISING MONEY: Ruth Lovell and Donna Hurley want you to give a pound a month to Mark McCarthy's Magic Moments.

Hundreds march to save A&E

By Suzi Muston

HUNDREDS of angry campaigners marched through Ilford, protesting against plans to shut King George's accident and emergency department.

The controversial plans - put forward by Health for North East London - would also see the hospital's maternity ward shut.

The protest was attended by parties across the local spectrum and key local figures such as MP Lee Scott (Ilford North - Conservative), Councillor Ross Hatful (Health Scrutiny - Labour), former councillor Ralph Scott (Liberal) and Councillor Keith Prince leader of Redbridge Council.

The guest speakers of the day were Darren Johnson (London Assembly, Green) and MEP Jean Lambert (Green).

NHS supporters from various surrounding counties also joined the throng, including Councillor Samir Jassel (Gravesend - Conservative), Len Hockey (Whipp's Cross Unison), Dr Anna Athow (British Medical Association) and Shirley Franklin (Defend Whittington Hospital).

The protesters met outside the Barley Lane hospital at midday on Saturday and worked their way to the town centre, where they were joined by hundreds more angry residents, religious and community leaders.

The march was the third and biggest yet, since the plans were first mooted in 2006.

The Reverend Brian Davison, from Seven Kings United Free Church, told the crowd he was 'worried' about the plans and said neighbouring Queen's Hospital, in Romford, was already at full capacity.

March organiser Wilson Choudhry said: "If the A&E shut down, King George's would be the only hospital in an outer London borough without its own A&E."

"People living in Redbridge will have to travel much to far to get to an A&E and the time it will take could be fatal with the density of London's traffic."

More than 4,000 signatures have been collected on a petition to keep the hospital open which, this week, is on its way to the Health Secretary, Andrew Lansley.

Health for North East London chiefs say the closures will improve the facilities for local people.

Co-op chooses charity

By Peter Henn
A SUPERMARKET is getting ready to take part in a year of fundraising. The Co-op, in Dagenham Road, Rush Green, will be trying to raise money for Mencap. Store manager, Alan Horsup, said: "We want to boost the confidence of young people with a learning disability - we're all proud to have Mencap as our charity of the year."

The BlueMotion Golf and Polo are now exempt.*
Another thing to smile about.

BlueMotion helps you save in lots of ways. Clever use of technology and a more efficient engine mean that the BlueMotion Golf and Polo use less fuel and emit just 91g/km and 99g/km of CO₂ respectively. So not only does it save you money at the pumps, it now saves you from the congestion charge as well.
For more information visit www.volkswagen.co.uk/efficiency

Think Blue.

*Exempt from the London Congestion Charge. Customer must register with the TfL and make an annual £10 payment per vehicle. Failure to register will result in a fine. The Congestion Charge symbol is Crown copyright. Official fuel consumption in mpg (litres/100km) for the Polo BlueMotion: urban 67.3 (4.2); extra urban 91.1 (3.1); combined 80.7 (3.5). CO₂ emissions 91g/km. Official fuel consumption in mpg (litres/100km) for the Golf BlueMotion: urban 60.1 (4.7); extra urban 83.1 (3.4); combined 74.3 (3.8). CO₂ emissions 99g/km.

Charity's hunt for shop mannequins

By Peter Henn

A CHARITY shop is looking for people to hand over some special items to help with a refurbishment.

Age Concern Havering, in Hornchurch High Street, needs both mannequins and clothes rails to round off the store's recent refurbishment.

Assistant manager, Louise Bachini, said: "Our mannequins are in danger of falling apart and we desperately need new ones.

"We always need rails and racks for our clothes, too, so we'd be grateful if anyone can help us."

If you can help, call the store on 01708 474016.

Work begins at sports centre

By Suzi Muston

WORK has begun to create a multi-million pound sports centre on the border of Redbridge and Newham.

The new £6million badminton and netball arena will be used by Olympic competitors from across the world.

The building, in Boris Road, Barking, will house 12 interchangeable netball and badminton courts, stadium seating and an accommodation block for competitors to use.

There will also be 12 outdoor floodlit tennis and netball courts.

The sports centre will also be upgraded for those taking part in wrestling and judo.

The venue will be open to the public from December. The only time it will be shut is during the six-week summer period leading up to, and including, the Games.

Redbridge Sports Centre chief executive, Ken Leggate, said: "We are thrilled to be the first and largest multi-sport Games-Time Training Venue to sign up for the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games."

The building was paid for the Olympic Delivery Authority, Sport England, Badminton England, the London Marathon Trust, England Netball, Playsport London, LaFarge Environmental Trust, Foundation For Sport and The Arts and Grange Farm Trust.

Councillor Sue Nolan, cabinet member for leisure, said: "This will help ensure Redbridge benefits from the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games."

"The investment in Redbridge Sports Centre will benefit residents for generations to come."

Code-breaking machine on tour

By Matthew Stanton

SOLVED: Dr James Grime with the Enigma.

Picture by Mark Cleveland

A MACHINE invented to keep Nazi operations secret has now become an educational tool for schools across Essex.

The Enigma – invented by German engineer Arthur Scherbius at the end of the First World War – is used by the University of Cambridge to teach schoolchildren maths, science and history.

Dr James Grime, of the Enigma Machine Project, travels all over the world giving talks about code breaking and the technology behind the machine.

The 30-year-old, who gained a PhD in maths at York University, has visited more than 200 schools to give demonstrations.

He said: "The Enigma is one of the most interesting, exciting and exotic uses of mathematics and we want to show people the mathematical side of code breaking."

The machine teaches students history, maths, engineering, science and languages.

"It took the Allies years to break codes but the Second World War in Europe ended two years earlier than planned because German messages were solved."

"I think everyone should take the time to see such a fascinating piece of technology."

Dr Grime, who grew up in Nottingham, got involved with the Millennium Mathematics Project at the University of Cambridge because of his passions for codes.

The project also reveals the history of codes and teaches youngsters about how numbers are used in modern technology, such as credit cards.

Enigma models were first used in the 1920s before the German military introduced the Wehrmacht Enigmas.

Secret messages produced by the Nazis proved difficult to break, but in December 1932, the Polish Cipher Bureau made a breakthrough.

Just weeks before the outbreak of the war in July 1939, the Bureau gave decryption techniques and equipment to French and British military intelligence.

This intelligence, codenamed 'Ultra', allowed the British to prepare for the D-Day landings.

It has been estimated that 100,000 Enigma machines were constructed.

To get involved with the Millennium Mathematics Project, call 07092 131080 or visit www.mmp.maths.org

Affordable homes show in Greenwich

The South East London Affordable Homes Show, which will promote over 500 affordable homes for sale, will be held in Greenwich later this month (February). The show will take place on Saturday 19th February 2011 at the Queen Mary Room, Old Royal Naval College, Greenwich, between 11am and 4pm.

The South East London Affordable Homes Show, a free event hosted by Housing Options, will bring together major affordable housing providers operating in London including L&Q, Affinity Sutton, Family Mosaic, Moat, In Place, Wandle and Southern Housing, all of which will offer affordable properties across the capital.

As well as information about local schemes, Londoners will be able to find out more about products such as New Build HomeBuy and Rent to HomeBuy. These products provide high quality homes to anyone earning up to £60,000.

Would-be home buyers who qualify and earn between £14,000 and £60,000 will be offered the opportunity to potentially secure an affordable home at this year's Housing Options Show, with various deals on offer, including a selection of part buy, part rent, shared housing initiatives, with a minimum share typically starting from 25 per cent.

Some housing providers operating such as L&Q will actually offer opportunity to view – via a free shuttle bus service - nearby property developments such as The Artillery, Shooters Hill, where one, two and three bedroom properties are available starting from £180,000 with a minimum 25 per cent share being £45,000.

Nic Bealey, L&Q Director of Sales & Marketing, said: "The show is a great chance for Londoners to find out about affordable home ownership opportunities in the South East. More and more people are realising there are affordable and attractive alternatives to buying their first home on the open market. At Housing Options we have seen unprecedented levels of interest over the last year both online and at events."

People who are trying to get a foot on the property ladder but are unable to attend the event, can log on and register their details at www.housingoptions.co.uk

Alternatively, simply log on to www.whathouse.co.uk where you will find a selection of new and affordable homes for sale.

To find out if you are eligible for an affordable home, log-on to www.whathouse.co.uk.

The website, dedicated to the new and affordable housing sector, has a comprehensive list of new and affordable homes for sale.

Become a better driver

by Andy Enright

EVEN those without a degree in statistics will be capable of realising we can't all be above average drivers. In fact, logic dictates that every other car that passes us is driven by a distinctly sub par driver. And yet despite this bald fact, precious few drivers have the humility or awareness to prioritise further driver training.

A number of large companies have seen the light, giving advanced tuition to their drivers and vastly reducing the cost and downtime of accidents. BP, the BBC, Sothebys, Ernst and Young, TNT and Chevron Texaco all turned to one of the big players in this market sector, IAM Fleet, the commercial driver training arm of the Institute of Advanced Motorists. Voted by industry fleet managers as the best driver training company in the 2003 Fleet Excellence Awards, IAM Fleet can call upon years of experience.

The IAM Test is based on the Police and Road Craft System of Car Control. As such, what the Examiner Expects on test is based around the Principles set down in Roadcraft (the Police Drivers Manual). Or more importantly, the IAM's interpretation of the Roadcraft principles in the IAM's own manual "Pass Your Advanced Driving / Riding Test".

However, the content of Roadcraft and Pass Your Advanced Driving Test is very broad and as a guideline, your drive should be based on the 5 S's of Advanced Driving: namely that driving should be Safe, Systematic, Smooth, with the correct use of Speed and with all-round Sparkle and panache.

If high speed is more of an attraction, why not take a course in track driving? There are any number available, ranging from an hour's tuition in your own car - which starts at around £150 - right up to full race schools at illustrious circuits such as Silverstone and Brands Hatch. Many car manufacturers run their own proprietary driver training courses and these can get very plush indeed. Lotus run a particularly good set up at their Hethel test track with both intermediate and advanced levels available at very affordable rates. As an opportunity to elicit pearls of wisdom from some of the most talented drivers in the business, it comes highly recommended.

Of course, there are other ways to get your jollies whilst still learning more about driving. Although speed may not be on the agenda, an offroad course is always enormously exciting. Land Rover run some of the best in the business at a number of venues across Britain, offering both half and full day courses in the Land Rover product of your choice. These events have proved very popular as corporate Team Building exercises and certainly give rise to less festering resentment than the ubiquitous paintball excursions!

Whatever your motivation, there's a huge variety of driver training opportunities out there.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;

(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republishing or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Obinna fires a timely reminder as Irons beat Forest in FA Cup

West Ham United

ON-LOAN forward Victor Obinna fired a timely reminder to Avram Grant about his attacking abilities as West Ham reached the fifth round of the FA Cup.

With strikers Demba Ba and Robbie Keane arriving at Upton Park ahead of Monday's transfer deadline, the Nigerian bagged a hat-trick as the Irons came back to beat Nottingham Forest 3-2.

After Wednesday night's disappointing exit from the Carling Cup, the Hammers started brightly and took the lead on four minutes when Obinna deflected Mark Noble's shot past Lee Camp.

However, the goal failed to settle the east Londoners and Forest muscled their way back into the game when veteran Dele Adebola stroked David McGoldrick's pass beyond Robert Green on 18 minutes.

The visitors then took the lead five minutes before half time as Green saved from his own defender -

Herita Ilunga - and McGoldrick put the ball over the line.

Any thoughts of a West Ham collapse were dashed two minutes later when Obinna equalised with his second of the day. The Inter Milan man's floated cross from the right drifted over the head of Camp and into the net.

And the action continued to come after half time as Joel Lynch fouled Winston Reid in the box and the ref pointed to the spot. Obinna converting for his hat-trick.

The Hammers were able to control the remainder of the game and the only surprise was that they did not add more to their tally.

Frederic Piquionne, Pablo Barrera and Freddie Sears all going close, while Green was relatively untroubled at the other end.

The Hammers drew Burnley at home in the next round of the cup. Before that they have three crucial Premier League games starting with a trip to Blackpool tonight (Wednesday).

Vice captain bags a hole-in-one

Golf

SOUTH Essex Golf Centre's vice captain is celebrating after hitting an amazing hole-in-one.

Trevor Wright scored his ace on an overcast and windy day during a men's section competition on the very tricky 159-yard par 3 sixth hole.

The 49-year-old, who plays off a nine handicap, hit the ball cleanly with a hybrid club, and the ball bounced twice and rolled into the hole.

It is the second time Wright has hit a hole-in-one and was a great way to end his year as vice captain and herald in his year as captain.

He said: "When I teed off, the idea of hitting a hole-in-one never even crossed my mind."

"I was amazed when my opponent told me what had happened, and I have to admit, my initial thought was whether I had enough money on me to celebrate in the bar afterwards!"

"Needless to say, I was also really delighted."

Essex FA assist with new teams seeking funding

Grassroots Football

CLUBS aiming to develop new youth and adult 11v11 teams are being specifically targeted by the Essex County Football Association.

The Essex FA will assist with applications for 'Grow the Game' funding with the window closing on Monday, February 28.

The £5,000 will only be given to projects that plan to develop two to four new teams and at least one of which must commence in the 2011/12 season.

Grow the Game started at the begin of the month and hopes to address the decline in teams re-registering for a season.

John Manning, senior football development officer, said: "I'm so pleased we're able to promote this funding opportunity at this time of year and given the context of the football picture last year."

"Following a comprehensive research study it provided us with a clearer picture of which clubs saw a fall in their numbers, at which age groups, in which areas and what the reasons were. Not surprisingly, given the current economic climate, finances featured in the top five reasons for a lack of affiliation. However, a lack of players and volunteers came out on top."

Essex FA has arranged a special workshop on Monday, February 7, at the County Office, Chelmsford.

Attendees will be walked through the process and given tips about how to structure a strong application with an additional opportunity for questions and queries.

Places at the workshop are limited to one per club, with a maximum of 20 attendees on a first come, first serve basis.

Call John Manning on 01245 393095 or Nick Emery on 01245 393077. For more details visit www.footballfoundation.org.uk

City salvage point while Thurrock's good run halted

Non-League Football

CHELMSFORD City stay fourth in Blue Square South after drawing 1-1 at Dorchester Town on Tuesday night.

The Clarets find themselves nine points behind leaders Braintree Town, who slipped up 1-0 at Dartford.

City went behind on 18 minutes through Ryan Moss' goal for the home side, but Glenn Pennyfather's men responded seven minutes into the second half, with Rob Edmans grabbing the equaliser.

Thurrock's good run of form came to an end at Woking, going down 1-0.

Elvis Hammond scored the only goal of the game on the hour mark for the Cards, managed by former Dagenham & Redbridge boss, Garry Hill.

Concord Rangers came back from their 6-1 thrashing at home to Wealdstone on Saturday to win 3-0 at Kingstons on Monday night in Ryman League Premier.

Goals from Gary Ogilvie, Lee

White and Tony Stokes secured the win.

A second half stoppage time equaliser from Phil Anderson ensured Billericay Town picked up a great point at Lowestoft Town. Dale Cockrill had put the home side in front.

AFC Hornchurch came from behind to win 2-1 over Margate.

Laurence Ball gave the visitors a 37th minute lead, but the Urchins left it late with Tommy Black equalising on 77 minutes before Lewis Smith grabbed the winner with two minutes remaining.

Aveley's battle against relegation took a blow on Monday night when they lost 2-0 at home to Hendon - Michael Peacock and Greg Ngoyi inflicting the damage.

Midweek action in Ryman League Division One North saw a bad tempered game between lowly Tilbury and Waltham Forest.

Ben Bradbury gave the Dockers a 25th minute lead, which proved to be the winner, which lifted Tilbury away from the drop-zone.

The flash point came in the second half when Forest's Lukman Majeed stamped on Tilbury's Gary Henty who retaliated. Both men received their marching orders.

Romford took an early lead through Paul Kavanagh against fellow play-off chasers Potters Bar Town.

But the visitors fought back to take the three points with goals from Josh Urquhart, Billy Sentance and Luke Croll.

Two penalties from Ollie Berquez ensured Maldon & Tiptree beat Cheshunt 3-1.

Grant Cooper had initially given Maldon the lead, cancelled out by Cheshunt's Josh Hutchinson.

Brentwood Town also enjoyed a fruitful night, putting four past Great Wakering Rovers with no reply.

Nicky Muir, Jacob Dingli and Ellis Remy ensured a comfortable victory for Brentwood.

In the Saturday fixtures, East Thurrock United suffered a surprise 2-1 home defeat to Heybridge Swifts.

Kris Newby gave the Rocks an 11th minute lead with his 24th goal of the season, but Swifts turned the match on its head in the second with goals from Russell Pond and Luke Callander.

East Thurrock lost the lead to Needham Market who saw off Romford 3-1. Sam Newson scored twice in the first half for the visitors, the latter a penalty, before Matt Toms pulled on back for Boro in the 90th minute.

But Nathan Stone replied immediately for the 3-1 win, to give them a point lead with three games in hand.

Waltham Abbey maintained their play-off hopes with a 2-0 victory over Grays Athletic.

Kieran Ogunkoya gave Abbey the lead on the hour mark, before Tom Laxton rounded proceedings off with a goal in stoppage time.

Lowly Redbridge lost 2-0 at home to play-off chasers Enfield Town through goals from Adam Wallace and Jon Moore, while Great Wakering Rovers lost out to a Daniel Brown penalty at Harlow Town.

Rugby Union

Barking head for title and Southend get narrow win

BARKING maintained their unbeaten record in National League One with a 30-5 victory over Redruth on Saturday.

Tries from Kevin Sorrell, Sean Flannery, Aaron Liffchak, Nico Fraser and penalties and conversions from Adam Armstrong made sure Barking picked up the bonus point at the Goresbrook.

Southend bounced back following their defeat at Taunton last week to triumph 27-25 over Worthing in National Two South at Warner's Bridge.

In a tight match, tries from Mike Stanley (2) Nick Grier and Sean Vine, plus kicks from Simon Hoults and Andrew Frost saw Southend edge it and stay in fifth place.

Westcliff were made to work for their 34-5 victory by Eton Manor.

The runaway leaders of London One North have a 14 point lead at the top.

Chingford still have their eye on second place following their 16-11 victory over bottom side Stevenage Town, while Thurrock are just three points behind in fifth after their 15-22 win at Tabard.

Brentwood suffered disappointment, losing 48-17 at Bury St Edmunds, along with Woodford who went down 25-38 to Colchester.

Rochford Hundred moved to the top of London Two North East following their 10-34 win at Ipswich.

The bonus point proved crucial as previous leaders Braintree just saw off third place Romford & Gidea Park 19-17.

Chelmsford must have wished for a better start to the season after they produced another convincing win, this time over Enfield Ignatians by 37-12, while Canvey Island lost ground, narrowly beaten 12-11 at Saffron Walden.

Basildon's chase of leaders Lowestoft & Yarmouth continued in London Three North East, after their 9-27 at former pacesetters Newmarket.

They are four points behind the team from Suffolk, who brushed aside South Woodham Ferrers by 31-8.

Wanstead enjoyed a 38-12 victory over Mersea Island, while Upminster lost 29-16 at third place Norwich.

Campion lost 22-13 at bottom side Wisbech, who made up ground on Bancroft following their 35-12 defeat at Wymondham.

Speedway

Hammers help relaunch

LAKESIDE Hammers have teamed up with the Rye House Rockets to re-launch Hackney Hawks back into British speedway.

The Hawks will allow both teams to develop young British talent and have entered a team in the National League for this year.

Lakeside co-promoter, Jon Cook, said: "We expect to stage at least a meeting a month during the season and feel the need to develop young British talent is a duty all clubs should undertake in future seasons."

"I'm sure London fans will be drawn to see the iconic Hawks race jacket in action and help us to continue pressure for speedway to play some part in the Olympic legacy, which of course is on the site of the old Waterden Road Stadium, the former home of Hackney speedway."

The Hawks were founded in 1963 but closed down in 1983, replaced by the Crayford Kestrels who later became the Hackney Kestrels. They had links to Rayleigh Rockets and Rye House Rockets.

Rye House owner, Len Silver, who was Hawks' promoter for 20 seasons, said: "I am very excited to be linking with our friends at Lakeside, and I am sure this move will be a great success and a big factor in producing future stars for both of our teams."
